Valentine Luppert Loses Valuable Horse Which Had Legs Broken and Was Shot—Ladies' Charitable Society Whist—Turkey Awarded.

Another misfortune befell Valentine Luppert of Central avenue about 6 o'clock Tuesday morning, when his horse got away, ran up the railroad track to a point behind the tannery, and went down an embankment, breaking both hind legs, so that it had to be shot by William J. Kramer.
Mr. Luppert was putting the harness onto his horse at his barn in the rear of his shop near the corner of Central avenue and Twelfth street, when the horse broke loose and ran down Twelfth street onto the tracks. This steamboat train was coming up along behind the horse and gained until, to get out of the way, the horse jumped down the bank into the canal. A number of people say they saw the train hit the horse.
The loss to Mr. Luppert will be several hundred dollars, and follows several other runaways, in one of which at Taftville, only a few months ago, he had his arm broken.

TWELFTH ANNIVERSARY.
Father Smith Completes Today Dozen Years as Pastor of St. Mary's Church.

Today will mark for Rev. James J.
Smith the completion of twelve years devoted labor in Greenville as pastor of St. Mary's church, and for the parish the rounding out of a dozen years of growth, since it was divided from the parish of Norwich by the late Rev. Michael Tierney on Nov. 24, 1897.
Since Father Smith began his pastorate here a modern brick parochial school, a commodious convent and last of all a fine new rectory have through his efforts been built. It is the hope of his parish that he may not leave his field until his work is crowned by the building of a new parish church. The spiritual side of the work has grown in like ratio, there being now about 2,600 communicants.

Ladies' Charitable Society Whist.
Mr. and Mrs. John Donovan entertained over 100 people Tuesday evening at their home on North Main street at the semi-monthly meeting of the Ladies' Charitable society of St. Mary's parish. Twenty-five tables were played, the first lady's prize, a dolly, going to Mrs. Charles Lee, and the first gentleman's, an inkstand, to John R.
Fowler. Refreshments were served and music enjoyed, and the most delightful whist thus far was held.

Turkey Drawn at Temperance Rooms.
At the rooms of the Father Mathew T. A. society Tuesday evening the big turkey was drawn by Thomas McHugh of 335 Central avenue. Mr. McHugh is one of the popular members of the society and his good luck is pleasing.
A social evening was spent, C. J.
Downes being chairman of the committee in charge, and the members Joseph O'Sullivan, P. F. Shea, M. J.
Carroll, Simon J. Foley, James Mc-Nerney and Phyllis Glade.

Notes.
James Murphy of Branford, Conn., is the guest of relatives in town over Thanksgiving.
Mrs. Sarah Wheaton of Central avenue is spending Thanksgiving with relatives in Willimantic.
The pupils of the local schools are making their customary contributions of food for the Thanksgiving dinners of the needy.

The Lightweights on Thanksgiving day will meet a fast eleven from Yan-tic on the Shuetzen campus at 10.15.
Their last game of the season will be played Saturday, when they expect another game with Jewett City on the local campus.

James Counihan Injured.
James Counihan of Boswell avenue, employed in the pistol department at the Hopkins & Allen arms factory, caught his hand between a cutter and a vice Monday afternoon. The back of his hand was badly cut and some of the tendons torn. He was given first aid at the shop, three of his fellow employees fainting away in so doing, and later was cared for by a physician who ligated the cords and sowed up the wound. Young Counihan stood the trying operation in a credible manner.

Church Consolidation Being Talked

Officials of Second and Broadway Congregational Have Had Two Meetings Regarding Matter—Not Before Organizations as Bodies—Sounding Feeling of Mem- bers.

Since the resignation of Dr. Lester L. West, as pastor of the Second Congregational church, which, when it takes effect, will leave the church without a pastor, there has been considerable quiet consideration of the possibility of the consolidation of the Second church and the Broadway Congregational church. With such in view there have been two meetings of officials of the two churches when the possibilities of such action have been talked over and it has been presented to a number of the members of both churches for the purpose of sounding the feeling of the congregations relative to such a move.
The outcome of the matter, which has not as yet been presented to either church as a body, is yet very uncertain. There will be doubtless much opposition to the idea. Perhaps the strongest argument that can be used in behalf of the idea is the fact that the churches are so closely located that they are drawing from the same section of the city, a fact which has been felt for some time would ultimately bring about an agitation for consolidation, but which has been hushed by Dr. West's resignation.
Neither church is in debt and the finances are such that consolidation need not be urged, Broadway being the wealthier church in this respect.
Some months ago the society committee of the Second church was approached in regard to the sale of the property of the church, but that was unanimously turned down. The Second church has a membership of about 360, while the membership at Broadway church is about 400.
What action will be taken when the matter is presented to the churches separately, if it goes as far as that, cannot be foretold. That there will be much opposition is certain from the attitude of a number of the prominent members.
The talk of consolidation will probably come as a surprise to a number of the members of both churches.
The Second church is the parent church, the ecclesiastical society being organized November 29, 1751, while the church was organized July 24, 1760, and Rev. Nathaniel Whitaker was installed the first pastor seven months later. Services were held in Trapp's tavern, now the Bill block, corner of Shetucket and Little Water streets.
The first church was built in 1766, nearly opposite Sevin's drug store, which was burned in 1783. In 1795 a frame building was erected where the present church stands, but the present church was erected in 1845, being built of stone furnished by General Williams from his quarry in Love lane road.
It was in 1842 that a number of the members withdrew from the Second church and formed the Broadway congregational church, and on April 5, 1874, the corporate body of Park Congregational church withdrew from the Second church.

BOARD OF TRADE

Will Attend National Rivers and Har- bors Congress December 5, 9, 10.

Acting upon the authority given him at the last meeting of the board of trade to appoint two other members.
In addition to himself, as delegates to the national rivers and harbors congress at Washington, December 8, 9 and 10, President Cary has named Edwin A. Tracy and William B. Young, two of the prominent members of the board and two of Norwich's representative citizens. The society committee of the Second church was ap-
unanimously turned down. The Sec-
way church is about 400.

CIVIL SUPERIOR COURT.

New London Suit Occupied Court's At- tention All Day—First Witness for Defense.

In the civil superior court here on Tuesday the case of Mrs. M. E. Allyn vs. A. T. Miner, exc., was resumed.
Ex-Mayor Cyrus G. Beckwith of New London was the first witness and he stated that Mr. Comstock told him that Mrs. Allyn had done better for him than any doctor and he intended that she should be well paid for it.
Noyes B. Crandall testified that Mr.
Comstock told him that he would not go to any hospital as long as he had such a woman as Mrs. Allyn to care for him. Mr. Comstock said he intended to leave her his house and money, as she had given him the best of care and prolonged his life. This closed the testimony for the plaintiff.
The first witness for the defense was the plaintiff, Mrs. Allyn, called by Attorney Hull, and she told of her trial of particulars and of the clothes bought for Mr. Comstock, the taxes and water rates paid. She told of Mr. Comstock's death, being alone with him at 1.30 in the morning. She turned over Mr.
Comstock's property to Mr. Miner.
A. T. Miner was called regarding some receipts in connection with the estate and will produce them later. He had loaned Mr. Comstock money which he said he was to pay to the Allyn's.
Mrs. Allyn told him she had settled before his death. She said nothing about a claim against the estate.
Dr. Bradford, who attended Mr. Comstock, testified that Mr. Comstock had him of the agreement he had with the Allyn's and that Mrs. Allyn had told him Mr. Comstock did not owe her anything.

TAFTVILLE

George Raboin and Miss Eva Chevalier, Former Norwich Young Woman, Married in Arctic Center—Bowling at German Shooting Club on Thanks- giving.

Miss Eva Chevalier, daughter of the late Frank Chevalier, of Norwich, and a former resident in the city, and George Raboin, both of Arctic Center, R. I., were united in marriage in St.
John's church in Arctic Center Monday morning at 7 o'clock by Rev. Joseph B. Bourgeois. The maid of honor was a sister of the groom, Miss Florence Raboin, and the best man a personal friend, George A. Proulx, of Arctic Center. There was a large attendance of relatives and friends at the ceremony.
The bride wore a gown of white messaline, and her maid of blue messaline, both having wreaths of lilacs of the valley. The bride received numerous gifts.
Mr. and Mrs. Raboin arrived in Taft-ville Monday evening at 7 o'clock on their wedding trip and received a large number of friends at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Fred Normand, of Hunter's avenue. After spending a few days as the guests of Mrs. Norman and Stephen H. Reeves of the city, and visiting in Willimantic and New London, Mr. and Mrs. Raboin will return to a newly furnished home in Arctic Center. A reception has been planned for them there Saturday night at St.
John's hall.
Mr. Raboin is employed as a machinist in Providence and is a popular young man in Arctic Center. His bride also has many friends there, as well as in Norwich, where she lived until a year ago.

At Germania Schuetzen Verein in Lisbon Thanksgiving day there will be special prize bowling among the club members and some interesting sport is anticipated. The prizes will be livestock, a small pig for first prize and geese, duck and chicken for others. There are more than the usual num- ber of sociats this year on the eve of Thanksgiving.

his arm in a sling and is doing nicely.

THREW BOILING WATER.
Joseph Ducharme Provoked by His Step-Daughter.

dy in court Monday heard the case of the state vs. Joseph Ducharme, who is charged with assault upon his stepdaughter, Miss Rosie Smith, last Saturday in Montville. The case was continued for one week and will come up again on Monday, November 29.
Ducharme meanwhile being allowed his liberty under bonds of $100.
It is alleged that Ducharme, who lives in the Pequot section, threw a cup of boiling water over the girl, scalding her seriously.
The story is that Ducharme was preparing to shave and that purpose, when the girl laughed at him, or in some other way provoked his anger, whereupon he threw the water directly at her, instinctively, to protect her face, she raised her arm, the boiling water, striking her on the shoulder and arm.
The hearing was continued in order to see the full extent of the injuries, which are said to be of a serious nature.
